This is the first book of a series entitled Cuo Luan Nian Hua (Disoriented Generation). In this series, the author reveals the epic picture of the turn of the 21st century, both in Beijing and in Philadelphia, from which twelve young Chinese (mostly college graduates) experiencing their love and pursuing their personal success. The story extends a timespan of twelve years (a cycle of Chinese Zodiac). To pursue her American dream, Langxin, a married young lady, came to the University of Pennsylvania to study her masters degree. She was a self-paid student at PENN. Soon, she found herself under substantial financial difficulty after she depleted all her money on the tuition and lost her cafeteria job at PENN. She went to Long-Tan Chinese Restaurant in China Town for a waitress job. The owner of the restaurant A-Sheng, a handsome, hardworking, and successful first-generation immigrant and business owner, felt that Langxin had a special appeal of maturity that attracted him. He almost immediately fell in love with Langxin, but Langxin struggled between loyalty to her marriage in China and the financial security...
