The company is headquartered in Amsterdam and employs 119.001 people worldwide, of which 78% are employed outside the Netherlands. Philips has operations in over 100 countries and identifies the Netherlands, the US, Germany, France, Brazil, Japan and China as their main markets. These countries make up 57.8% of total sales and 82.9% of total assets and are standing mainly in competition with Siemens and General Electronics. From 1990 till last year Philips was in a phase of organizational transformation. Without restructuring the company's portfolio in a simpler way Philips would have had extremely difficulties during the finance crises in 2008. Today the organization represents predominantly a classical Managing Diversity of Mintzberg's five configurations which divides the company's business into three segments: Healthcare, Consumer Lifestyle and Lighting. In the healthcare sector Philips is leader in areas such as cardiac care, acute care and home healthcare. In 2010 Philips' healthcare business was able to generate sales amounting to 8.6 billion EUR. The US is the largest healthcare market currently representing almost 50% of the global market. Philips' consumer and lifestyle business is very broad covering areas such as television, shaving and beauty, multimedia and domestic appliances. Currently this business unit employs approximately 18.400 people worldwide with registered sales of 8.9 billion EUR last year, of which 59.9% were...
