Its two weeks before Christmas and the holiday season is going full tilt -- except for Lynn and her son. In an effort to rekindle their slow starting romance, chief detective Dusty Reid pays a visit and finds Lynns household untouched by holiday cheer. Dusty takes Jason on a routine call and starts a series of events that mirrors the death of Lynns husband two years ago. In addition to grieving on the anniversary of her husbands death, Lynn has been advised by one of the board members of the River Bend Philanthropies that his review of a local nonprofit, River Bend Reads, has revealed embezzlement. This story weaves through the Christmas holidays, with Lynn and Dustys big New Years Eve date spent in the morgue identifying the body of a staff member of River Bend Reads. And then another body turns up. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
