Mr. L - -- to General B MY DEAR GENERAL, Dec. 13, ----. X HOPED that you would have favoured us with a passing visit in your way to town, but I know you will tell me that friendship must not interfere with the interests of the service, I have reason to curse those interests of the service, they are for ever at variance with mine. I had a particular desire to speak to you upon a subject on which it is not agreeable to me to write. Lady Leonora also wished extremely and disinterestedly VOL. II. B for your company. She does not know how much she is obliged to you. The laconic advice you gave me some time ago influenced my conduct longer than counsel which is in opposition to our passions, usually does, and it has haunted my imagination perpetually. My dear L, do not end by being the dupe of ajrenchified coquette. My dear friend, of that there is no danger. No man upon earth despises or detests coquettes more than I do, be they French or English. I think, however, that a foreign-born, or foreign-bred coquette, has more of the ease of practice, and less of the awkwardness of conscience, than a home-bred flirt, and is in reality less blameable, for she breaks no restraints of custom or education; she does only what she has seen her mother do before her, and what is authorized...
