The goods were more liberally used, friends recommended them to friends, and the success of the pound package was so immediate that the Freeman Perfume Co. have just put out a full half pound of delicately and strongly perfumed Violet in a package pronounced the handsomest thing ever shown in Talc, free from advertisements, violets in conventional arrangements, the whole color scheme unique--a container worthy of a place on any dresser. The quality of the goods is Freeman, which all know in powder means the best. This Violet is, of course, distributed only under their D. C. S. N. consignment plan. Price $2.00 per dozen. Freeman has consistently worked for price protection when. many had weak knees; they kept going all the time, changing their own plans to meet the altered conditions, making them stronger than ever because the goods belonged to them until the retailer sold them. They deserve the hearty support of every profit-loving dealer and friend of full prices. ROUND-UP AT QUINCY, ILL. This lively Illinois city will have the honor of celebrating within its precinct the annual convention of the State Ph. A., on June 15, 16, and 17. This Round-Up may well be called an honor, for it will surpass anything ever before attempted in state association meetings. The hospitality of Quincy and its druggists, both wholesale and retail, is proverbial, and is eloquently manifested when it is understood that there are no shirkers in Quincy; every druggist,...
