

The Plan for Milton Keynes (Hardback)

By Milton Keynes Development Corporation, Mark Clapson

Taylor Francis Ltd, United Kingdom, 2013. Hardback. Book Condition: New. Revised ed.. 250 x 180 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The UK s largest new town, Milton Keynes, is the product of a Transatlantic planning culture and a plan for a relatively low-density motorised city generously endowed with roads, parklands, and the infrastructure of cabling for communications technology. At its heart was the charismatic and influential Richard (Lord) Llewelyn-Davies. A Labour Peer with various personal and professional interests in the USA, he drew upon the writings of American academics Melvin Webber and Herbert J. Gans, who were also invited to advise on social trends in relation to the urban context in the preparation for the Plan. The Plan bristled with an understanding that motorised transport and communications technology would shape the city of the future, and influence the nature and reach of community and social interactions beyond the localised realm. Prepared by Llewelyn-Davies, Weeks, Forestier-Walker and Bor, for Milton Keynes Development Corporation, and presented to the Minister for Housing and Local Government in 1970, the Plan for Milton Keynes is a vibrant expression of Sixties idealism and forward-thinking. In creating the Little Los Angeles in North Buckinghamshire ,...
