From Madera to DEGREES Catherine s. I HAVE already mentioned, that on the 3d of November we weighed from Madera, after orders had been given to the Captains to rendezvous at St. Jago, one of the Cape de Verd Islands, in cafe the squadron was separated. But the next day* when we were got to sea, the Commodore considering that the season was far advanced, and that touching at St. Jago would create a new delay, he for this reason thought proper to alter his rendezvous, and to appoint the Island of St. Catherine s, on the coast of Brazil, to be the first place to which the {hips of the squadron Vere to repair in case of separation. In our passage to the Island of St. Catherine s, we found the direction of the trade-winds to differ considerably from what we had...
