Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Are you single and wondering why you've been single for so long? Are you looking for a godly way to make yourself more attractive to the other sex? Do you find yourself in relationships that seem to self-destruct? Does your current trend of dates show a distressing pattern you'd like to change? This book addresses habits and offers advice that is brushed over in other books but rarely discussed in detail. This book asks you to take a cold hard look at your views of marriage, your faith and your view of yourself. This book challenges attitudes and habits that can sabotage relationships. This book goes over believing in God's desire and ability to help you find a mate, your active character building in preparation for that mate, how unforgiveness can affect your ability to find a mate, and many others. There is no way boot camp can completely train you for the rigors of war but you stand a better chance of survival if well trained. While there is no way to train...
